

Isaac Ntombela

Partner and Head of Corporate & Commercial

Isaac Ntombela, ranked Band 3 in General Business Law – Botswana by Chambers Global in leads the firm's Corporate & Commercial division as Partner. He advises local and international companies on a broad range of commercial matters, including mergers & acquisitions, competition law, tax, and regulatory compliance. His expertise spans transactions, corporate governance, and all aspects of company law. Isaac started his career in January 2010 as a lecturer with Gaborone Universal College of Law. He joined the Attorney General's Chambers for a short stint from August to September 2011 focusing on litigation. Isaac then joined Minchin & Kelly (Botswana) in October 2011 as a professional assistant in the Corporate and Commercial Business Unit and was promoted to Partner in January 2017.

Education

- LLB (cum laude), University of Pretoria, 2009
- Certificate in Islamic Commercial Law, CIMA, 2014

Membership

- Law Society of Botswana
- Botswana Qualifications Authority, Accredited Law Lecturer: 2010

Admission

- Attorney: 2011

CONTACTS

intombela@minchinkelly.bw | Cell: +267 72332201