Partner and Head of Financial Recoveries

Nyaradzo Mupfuti heads the Financial Recoveries Division at Minchin & Kelly (Botswana), specializing in debt collection legal services tailored for banks, insurers, financial institutions and various other entities. In addition to her expertise in collections, Nyaradzo offers strategic guidance to businesses navigating evolving debt collection policies and regulations. She oversees the soft collection operations within the firm's debt collection portfolio and provides clients with valuable insights into effective debt collection strategies. She possesses extensive knowledge and experience in civil litigation cases as well.

Nyaradzo contributes to the legal community as a trainer in the Law Society's Trial Advocacy Course, where she imparts essential skills to aspiring lawyers. She joined Minchin & Kelly (Botswana) in October 2017 and swiftly ascended to partnership in May 2019, a testament to her exceptional leadership and contributions to the firm.
