

Obakeng Keith Mmopi
Associate | Financial Recoveries

---

Obakeng Keith Mmopi is a dedicated attorney with a strong focus on Financial Recoveries. Joining Minchin & Kelly in January 2021, he brings a strategic approach to managing and resolving complex financial disputes. His keen interest in Labor Law and Tax Law enhances his ability to provide comprehensive legal services, ensuring that clients receive well-rounded and informed counsel. Whether navigating the intricacies of financial recoveries or exploring the nuances of labour and tax regulations, Keith is committed to delivering exceptional legal solutions to both individuals and businesses.

Education

- LLB, University of Botswana, 2019

Membership

- Law Society of Botswana

Admission

- Admitted as an attorney: February 2020

SECTORS

- Financial Recoveries:

Debt Collection: Representing creditors in recovering outstanding debts from individuals or businesses.

Insolvency and Bankruptcy: Assisting clients with insolvency proceedings, asset recovery, and restructuring.

Asset Tracing and Recovery: Locating and recovering assets in cases of fraud, theft, or financial disputes.

- General Litigation:

Civil Litigation: Representing clients in civil disputes, including contract disputes, tort claims, and property disputes.

Commercial Litigation: Handling legal conflicts within the business realm, including breaches of contract, shareholder disputes, and commercial fraud.

- Labour Law:

Employment Law: Handling cases related to employee rights, workplace disputes, employment contracts, and wrongful termination.

Collective Bargaining: Advising on union negotiations and labour agreements.

Workplace Compliance: Ensuring businesses comply with labour laws and regulations, including health and safety standards.

CONTACTS

E: ommopi@minchinkelly.bw | Mobile: +267 72775233