

Tatenda C Dumba

Partner | Banking and Project Finance

Tatenda Dumba

Partner Tatenda C. Dumba spearheads Minchin & Kelly (Botswana)'s Banking and Project Finance Division. Her practice encompasses project finance, debt & equity markets, derivatives and hedging transactions and public-private partnerships (PPPs). This breadth of knowledge extends to mining, energy, retail and property development. Tatenda's experience in advising multinational banks and development financial institutions on cross-border transactions makes her a sought-after expert in banking and finance, ISDA, custodian and insolvency matters. Recognized by Chambers and Partners (Band 3) for her finance and project acumen, she is a trusted advisor for a diverse spectrum of clients. She joined Minchin & Kelly (Botswana) in 2017 as a senior associate and her talent and dedication led to her well-deserved partnership promotion in July 2019.

Education

- LLM, University of Cape town (2010)
- LLB, Rhodes University (2006)

Membership

- Law Society of Botswana

Admission

- Year of admission as an attorney: 2009
- Year of admission as a conveyancer: 2010
- Year of admission as a notary public: 2010

PUBLICATIONS

- World Justice Project's Rule of Law Index® 2023 report on rule of law in practice
- World Justice Project's Rule of Law Index® 2023 report on labour law
- Legal framework regarding Public Private Partnerships \(PPPs\) in Botswana | DLA Piper
- Women, Business and the Law 2018: World Bank Group